By HARPER HAYES

A PERVERTED part-time DJ spent FIVE YEARS stealing underwear from neighbours' washing lines, which he used to dress up his SEX DOLL "girlfriend" for kinky romps.

Warped Joshua Murrell, 34, also wore the pinched panties himself as he filmed sex acts with his synthetic woman.

He was caught after a neighbour set up CCTV and Murrell was filmed performing a sex act on himself in her garden.

Cops found 5,000 items of underwear at his home - many were "heavily soiled".

Failure for first ever Brit rocket

THE first ever satellite mission launched from British soil has ended in failure.

A jumbo jet operated by the American Virgin Orbit company carried a rocket from Newquay, Cornwall, to release it over the Atlantic Ocean.

The rocket ignited and appeared to be ascending correctly, but word came from the company that the rocket had suffered an "anomaly".

The satellites it was carrying could not be released and were lost.

Cosmic Girl, the carrier 747 jet (above), returned safely to base.

The mission had been billed as a major milestone for UK space, marking the birth of a home-grown launch industry. The ambition is to turn the country into a global player – from manufacturing satellites, to building rockets and creating new spaceports.

A UK Space Agency spokesman predicted further launches in the next 12 months.

Amazon to close UK warehouses

THREE British Amazon warehouses are to close, the online shopping giant has announced.

Sites in Hemel Hempstead, Doncaster, and Gourcock in the west of Scotland, have been proposed for closure.

It's understood that all workers at the sites will be offered roles at other Amazon locations.

Amazon also revealed plans for two new major fulfilment centres in Peddimore, West Mids, and Stockton-on-Tees, County Durham, which will create 2,500 jobs over the next three years.

BRITAIN SWAMPED BY DELUGE AND IT'S TIME FOR THAT HEADLINE AGAIN...

FLOODY HELL!

BRITAIN was on flood alert yesterday as torrential rain swept the country.

The Met Office issued three yellow warnings for "persistent heavy rain" throughout the day, covering much of Wales, north west England, and south west Scotland, while a yellow warning for "strong winds" was in place for the Northern Isles.

The Met Office told people to expect "some disruption" in these areas, including "flooding of a few homes and businesses", "spray" on the roads, increased journey times on public transport, and "possible" power cuts.

The warning is in place until 10am today, with wind speeds predicted to reach up to 50mph.

Met Office meteorologist Alex Deakin described the outlook for yesterday as "a rather dull and damp affair" featuring "gusty winds".

More than 140 flood warnings were issued across Britain by environment regulators, because saturated ground caused by recent wet weather means even areas which avoid the worst of yesterday's deluge could still be at risk of future flooding.

Throughout yesterday, the Environment Agency issued 29 warnings, along with 90 alerts across the country.

Shapps: NHS must crack on with backlogs

GRANT Shapps says the NHS must do "whatever it needs to do" to deal with the current crisis – including treating patients in hospital car park cabins.

The Business Secretary (above) was asked about the prospect of some patients receiving emergency treatment in temporary modular units under an emergency recovery plan for the health service announced by the Health Secretary.

Mr Shapps said: "The most important thing is to deal with these backlogs and the pressures that the NHS is under."

"I'm in favour of the NHS doing whatever it needs to do to clear those backlogs and if that means temporary, modular, whatever, or using clinics close to people or whatever else is required, for heaven's sake, let's get on and do those things."

"Anyone looking at this realises that through COVID the NHS built up enormous pressures. It was dealing with one thing primarily, COVID. And having now to go back to all that elective surgery that didn't happen is putting huge pressure on."

Schools shut as teachers strike

PRIMARY schools across Scotland were closed all day yesterday as teachers walked out in a dispute over pay.

Last-ditch talks between unions and Scottish government officials held on Monday failed to prevent strike action.

Further walkouts will take place at Scottish secondary schools today.

The Educational Institute of Scotland said it was still hoping for a resolution before more strikes next week.

The strikes involve members of the EIS, NASUWT, Scottish Secondary Teachers' Association and the Association of Headteachers and Deputies unions.

They have rejected a 5% pay increase, arguing for 10%.

Just ONE reader queues as shops open early to sell Harry memoir

AFTER all the fire and fury, it was a bit of a damp squib.

Bookshops in London opened at midnight to meet demand for Prince Harry's memoir after it officially went on sale.

But only ONE person was in the queue outside Waterstones in Piccadilly, central London, when the shop opened early.

Promotional posters on display at the bookshop, which is Europe's largest, dubbed the book, which was being sold half price at £14, "the memoir everybody is talking about".

COUPLE: Harry and Meghan

But Caroline Lennon, 59, was the only one waiting to buy it after she walked two miles from Bethnal Green in the East End to queue from 6am.

She said: "I don't care what anybody says. People will criticise me and say, 'What an idiot for queuing up', but I don't care what anyone says."

"My personal feeling with Harry and William is they should connect. There's no love between them, there's no love with that family. He and William need to get their heads together and make up for God's sake. Life is too short."

Ms Lennon posed for snappas as she exited the shop with her copy, saying: "I'm looking forward to listening to the audiobook straight away."

It follows the chaotic launch of Spare with multiple leaks and copies being made available in Spain last week.

Despite a low-key reception in bookshops, the memoir is already top of the best sellers in the UK for online retailer Amazon, after several days of headline-grabbing revelations from leaks – ranging from how Prince Harry lost his virginity to claims that he was attacked by his brother, Prince William.

The 410-page memoir, which reveals the conflict and personal tensions inside royal palaces, shows Prince Harry's version of growing up and then falling out with the Royal family.

So far, Buckingham Palace and Kensington Palace have not responded.

Meanwhile, Harry and his wife Meghan's hometown in California has been ordered to evacuate following threats of flooding and mudslides.

Thousands of residents, including locals from the Montecito community, were ordered to evacuate on Monday after a flash flood warning was issued at 7pm.

Fellow Montecito resident Ellen DeGeneres shared a worrying video of herself seeking shelter during the severe weather.

The chat show host said: "Montecito is under complete evacuation... the entire town. This is crazy! We are having unprecedented rain. We have horses ready to evacuate."

"This creek next to our house never ever flows. It's probably about nine feet up, and it's going to go another two feet."

BRITS MISSING IN UKRAINE

TWO British nationals have gone missing in the eastern Donetsk region of Ukraine, Ukrainian police have confirmed.

Andrew Bagshaw, 48, (top left) and Christopher Parry, 28, were doing voluntary work and were last seen on Friday on their way to the town of Soledar, where fighting has been intense.

The Foreign Office said it was now "supporting the families".

Mr Bagshaw's parents said they "love him dearly" and were "immensely proud of all the work he has been doing".

Mr Parry, from Truro in Cornwall, travelled to Ukraine to help do humanitarian work and had most recently been helping people evacuate Bakhmut, in the eastern Donbas region.

Speaking to BBC Cornwall from Ukraine over Christmas last year, he described having a "drive to help, as the people here are so lovely".

He spoke about the "continuous" bombardment as he spent time near the front line, as well as encountering a drone "within about 10 metres of my face".

Mr Parry, who lives in Cheltenham, has written in his online crowdfunding page about raising money for vehicle repairs and gear to help evacuate civilians.

BUSTY: Helen said having kids gave her saggy boobs

THEY were almost as famous as the cobbles on Coronation Street.

But time and three kids have taken their toll on Helen Flanagan's boobs.

So the gorgeous actress, who plays Rosie Webster in the long-running ITV soap, has had a bit of work done.

The beauty, 32, admitted she was "really nervous" to share the news of her boob job but felt she needed the cosmetic surgery since her breasts "became really saggy".

While in recovery, Helen – who split from her footballer fiancé Scott Sinclair in October – said she went under the knife in a bid to "feel more confident".

Reduction

She also explained how her decision had been influenced by a reduction in her bust from an E cup to "not filling a B cup bra" caused by breastfeeding her three children.

While holding off from displaying the results, the newly-single star said in a vlog: "Hi, so I wanted to pop on here. I'm really nervous about sharing this actually but I've had a boob job."

"I'm in recovery at the moment. I have been really nervous about sharing this, because you always get some not very nice comments.

"It's just something that I did for myself, I really wanted to do it for my confidence."

"I am very much for body confidence, and for supporting other women, but supporting women in all choices that they decide to do."

"If something is really bothering you, I think it's a good thing to do something about it."

"My boobs changed so much from pregnancy and breastfeeding."

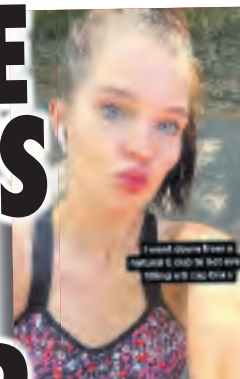

"I was quite big and busty before, but they just became really saggy and it just affected my confidence."

Sir Francis cancelled by woke school

A PRIMARY school in London has voted to change its name due to the slave trade past of namesake Sir Francis Drake.

Sir Francis is renowned for circumnavigating the world in a single expedition on his ship the Golden Hind from 1577 to 1580 and defeating the Spanish Armada in 1588.

He was also one of the first known British slave traders, capturing men and women from West Africa as early as 1560 and targeting slave ships from Portugal to steal humans on board.

Sir Francis Drake Primary School in Lewisham held a vote to see if the name should be changed in light of his role in history.

Of the 450 parents, staff, pupils and local residents who voted, 88 per cent called for a name change.

The school will now become Twin Oaks Primary School.

IT was one of the most notorious serial killing cases of all time...

And now the grim story of the Boston Strangler is being brought to the small screen.

Keira Knightley, 37, portrays newspaper reporter Loretta McLaughlin who was the first journalist to connect the murders.

The Brit babe appears in the Hulu TV movie along with co-star Carrie Coon, 41, who plays her newsroom colleague and confidante Jean Cole.

Thrilling

A tweet posted by Hulu and 20th Century Studios says: "Experience the thrilling true story of two reporters who led the charge to unravel one of the most infamous serial murder cases of all time."

The film, written and directed by Matt Ruskin, also features Alessandro Nivola, Morgan Spector, David Dastmalchian, Bill Camp, and Chris Cooper.

FIRST COVID, NOW THIS...

BOFFINS have given pigs bionic WILLIES in what they hope could be a huge advance in treating floppy cocks in humans.

Synthetic tissue restored the erectile function of pigs with injured penises. The artificial tissue mimics a spongy region, which fills with blood during an erection.

Damage to this connective tissue, called the tunica albuginea, can sometimes be repaired by taking tissue from elsewhere in the body and combining it with a network of proteins and other molecules to make a supportive tissue patch. However, the patch can be rejected by the immune system and it doesn't always effectively mimic the tunica albuginea.

CHINESE BOFFINS GIVE PIGS BIONIC WILLIES!

To help overcome this, Xuetao Shi at the South China University and his colleagues used isotropic alcohol gel to create an artificial tunica albuginea with a curled fibre structure, similar to that of the naturally occurring tissue.

The researchers used a weighted balloon to show that the artificial tunica doesn't bend, an indicator that it is strong enough to maintain penile stiffness.

They then tested the artificial tissue in pigs. The animals' penises became erect when the organ was injected with saline. Up to one month later, the pigs had shown no sign of rejecting the artificial tissue.

If used in humans, researchers hope the artificial tissue will give a similar sensation to that of any other erection.

Union fury over Rishi's new laws

NEW laws requiring minimum levels of service from ambulance staff, firefighters and railway workers during industrial action risk triggering a fresh clash with the unions, ministers have been warned.

Trades Union Congress general secretary Paul Nowak (above) says the laws risks more strikes.

"This legislation would mean that, when workers democratically vote to strike, they can be forced to work and sacked if they don't comply. That's undemocratic, unworkable, and almost certainly illegal," he said.

"Let's be clear: if passed, this Bill will prolong disputes and poison industrial relations – leading to more frequent strikes."

Fire Brigades Union boss Matt Wrack said: "This is an attack on all workers – including key workers, who kept public services going during the pandemic."

"It's an attack on Britain's COVID heroes and on all workers."

Excess deaths soar this winter

EXCESS deaths in England and Wales jumped sharply at the end of 2022, with a mixture of flu, cold weather and access to emergency care contributing to a spike in mortality, new figures show.

The number of registered deaths was 20% above average in the week ending December 30 and 21% above average in the week to December 23, according to the Office for National Statistics (ONS).

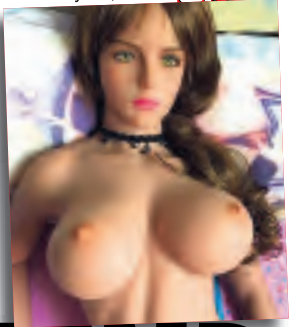

These are some of the highest levels recorded across 2022 – a year that saw above-average deaths almost continuously since the summer.

Health experts have warned against "simplistic" explanations, saying the picture is "complex" and needs further investigation.

Levels remain high among people dying at home, where deaths were 37% above average.

PERVERT STOLE PANTIES FOR HIS SEX DOLL GIRLFRIEND

Oddball also wore pinched knickers during bizarre romps

By HARPER HAYES news@sundaysport.co.uk

A PERVERTED father has admitted to dressing himself and his SEX DOLL in lingerie he stole from unsuspecting women during a five-year rampage.

Joshua Murrell, 34, of Reservoir near Melbourne, Australia – pleaded guilty to stealing more than 5,000 pieces of clothing – mostly women's underwear – off clothes lines during his lengthy spree.

Melbourne Court heard detectives found women's underwear stacked knee high inside Murrell's bedroom, with more than 1,000 items stuffed under his bed.

Murrell was captured only after one of his victims' caught him on CCTV cameras she had set up after repeatedly having her undies stolen in the dead of the night.

Stalking

Prosecutor Senior Constable Maddie Shipley told the court police had found video footage of Murrell violating a sex doll with homemade sex toys while both it and he was dressed in the stolen underwear.

He pleaded guilty to multiple charges of stalking, theft, dealing with the proceeds of crime and possessing an imitation firearm.

Among his sick treasure trove of stolen booty were handbags, bras, underwear, gym tights, shoes and various other types of women's clothing. "Numerous items were damp or mouldy and multiple items still had pegs attached. A large number of items were soiled... several items had what appeared to be semen stains on the fabric," Senior Constable Shipley said.

Dressed in black, the court heard Murrell would creep into the backyards of his victims in the early hours of the morning to steal their undies.

He was caught on CCTV masturbating under the clothes line of one victim.

He will likely be sentenced at a date to be fixed after being assessed for a community order.

SHANNON Singh revealed that she spices up her relationship with her boyfriend by stopping at service stations to have sex.

The former Love Island contestant has been with DJ Ben Sterling for almost two years, having "randomly" met each other at an afterparty.

Shannon has been open about her sex life and has now opened up about creating sparks in their relationship.

The Scot confessed all to intimacy coach Dr Lori Beth Bisbey.

She said: "I'm very sexual. I'm not shy when it comes to my sex life because I need a lot of it. "My connection with my partner is getting into bed, getting in the feels and having a great time, need I say more?"

"People get so shy talking about sex and I'm not like that at all."

"Me and Ben will have a long drive from London to Scotland and we will stop at the service stations and spark it up."

PETROL PRICES TUMBLE AT LAST

AVERAGE petrol prices have fallen below £1.50p for the first time since Russia invaded Ukraine last February, the AA motoring group says.

Pump prices hit a record of 191.53p a litre in early July, but by Monday had dropped down to 149.74p.

The AA said it was "a huge relief for drivers" but noted that diesel prices were still higher than they were last year at 172.21p a litre.

Diesel cost 153.05p a litre when the Russian invasion began. AA spokesman Luke Bosdet said it now cost about £23 less to fill a typical car, with a 55-litre tank, with unleaded petrol than it did in February 2022.

However, he said that petrol prices were "still historically way above" what they should be and the end of a temporary fuel duty cut this March could lead to fresh rises.

Petrol stations in cities and towns are charging up to 10p more for fuel than those in rural parts of the UK, he added.

The news comes as the RAC said that the cost of charging an electric car had increased by around 50% in the last eight months due to rising energy prices.

Fuel prices rose as countries unlocked from the COVID pandemic but surged higher when Russia – a major oil producer – invaded Ukraine because of concerns about global supplies.

Harry under fire for fake Yank accent

PRINCE Harry is using a fake Yank accent and has picked up verbal tics from wife Meghan Markle, social media watchdogs have declared.

The wayward royal, 38, sat down for two TV interviews which aired on Sunday night, with armchair critics claiming the Prince's posh British accent sounded different.

"Has anyone noticed Harry's pseudo-American accent?" one viewer asked on Twitter, saying Harry may have been faking his way of speaking.

"His accent as well as his 'news' is fake," another cynic slammed. Others believed he had picked up intonations and phrases from his three years living in America.

"Blimey, #Prince Harry has gone full Californian with his accent," one claimed.

"Lost count of the consecutive sentences that tailed off with raising intonations.

It's just like Meghan is talking through him."

A SEX pest care worker has been banned from his profession after putting a workmate through months of abuse.

His behaviour while working as a support worker with the Richmond Fellowship in Paisley, Renfrews, was laid bare in a report published by the Scottish Social Services Council.

It revealed the catalogue of harassment started in February 2021 when he asked the victim if she had any "secret lovers hidden in cupboards".

It continued into March when he sent her multiple inappropriate messages, including telling her they should have sex.

WHAT'S the best job in the world?

Chief taster in a brewery? Laundryman at the Wimbledon ladies' singles final? Sunday Sport nipple counter?

Or Demi Rose's ARSE MASSAGER? Well, here's the guy who got that special gig – and it's no wonder he's grinning like a wanking Jap!

Demi, 27, spent a day getting treatments at two London-based clinics, including cellulite whacking and fat burning sessions. In one Instagram video, she showed off her famous trumper as she stripped off for a "bespoke cellulite treatment" with Shane Cooper UK.

It's not clear if the man in the video is Shane Cooper but whoever he is, he looks jolly happy in his work!

She then had emerald laser, cryotherapy, a hydrofacial, and a red LED light treatment at Remedi London.

One fan said: "I'd love to massage Demi's arse but I'd prefer to give her a facial."

"And by that I mean I'd like to spunk in her face, not give her some cosmetic procedure – just in case there was any doubt."

Demi has been modelling for the last nine years and credits her career as being a "blessing" after being subjected to bullying when she was younger. Speaking to Radio 1 Newsbeat, Demi previously revealed: "I always wanted to get into modelling and when I eventually got there I classed it as a blessing because I grew up being bullied and didn't have many friends at all."

Demi, who was once romantically linked to rapper Tyga, recently opened up about her sexuality and troubled childhood in a candid Instagram Q&A.

The model admitted to her followers: "I went through a phase of liking girls more than guys. Now I'm more into guys."

A NAKED headless body was found floating in the water off one of Spain's most popular resorts.

The decapitated woman's corpse had a deep cut to her stomach and her hands had been chopped off when the body was spotted at Las Canas beach in Marbella.

She was discovered by a group of friends who noticed something in the sea while sitting on a restaurant terrace.

They raised the alarm after initially believing the person was drowning.

Locals report the nude woman found near the Club 200 restaurant was around 30 years old. Police are investigating.

A COP was fired without notice after having sex while on duty in the back of his work van with a member of the public.

Allegations came to light during a misconduct hearing, when Northumbria Police officer Ian Dawson was accused of gross misconduct.

Dawson picked up an unnamed female from her house and drove her to a supermarket car park on September 8, 2020. The officer engaged in sexual activity with her in the back of the police van before he drove her home.

A second allegation related to a potentially inappropriate relationship with another member of staff in October 2021.

At the misconduct hearing, chaired by Chief Constable of Northumbria Police, Winton Keenen, Dawson was found to have committed gross misconduct on both counts and was dismissed without notice.

A WIFE has been charged with attempted murder after she repeatedly poisoned her vet husband by lacing his coffee with animal euthanasia drugs.

Amanda Chapin, 50, of Monroe, Wisconsin, has been charged with attempted first-degree intentional homicide in Lafayette County after she tried to kill hubby Gary Chapin, 70, who survived but fell into a coma for four days.

Authorities said she poisoned him three times in July and August by putting barbiturates in his coffee.

The couple wed in March and after the wedding Amanda forged the signature of one of her husband's children on a power of attorney paper.

Chapin then demanded that her husband amend the home's deed so she can get ownership if he died, a criminal complaint states.

She poisoned her spouse with drugs that are used for putting animals down for the first time less than three weeks after the quit claim deed on the house was authorised.

In August, the third time her spouse ingested the toxin, he fell into a coma.

A blood test later revealed that barbiturates that were in his blood stream indicated they were the same drugs used to euthanise animals.

After the heinous act, Mr Chapin's son filed a restraining order against his dad's new wife on his father's behalf, online court records show.

In September, it was revealed that she violated the restraining order after she emailed her spouse a suicide note, saying she decided to kill herself because she claimed his children would destroy her.

The letter also revealed that she denied ever poisoning him.

It is unclear how Amanda tried to take her own life, but she survived after paramedics took her to a local hospital.

Her spouse filed for divorce the next day.

Adam Witt, Amanda Chapin's attorney, said that his client denies the allegations, adding: "Under the constitutions of this state and this nation, Mrs Chapin is innocent and has the right to due process under the law. We will continue to assert her fundamental constitutional rights, as they are the only protection a citizen has against the state."

Clio owners top sex-in-car poll

RENAULT Clio owners are the most likely to have sex in their cars.

According to a study by insurance firm Tempcover Clio drivers lead the pack when it comes to steaming up their windows, with 34 percent of the vote.

This was followed by BMW 3 Series drivers (31%) and those who own an Audi A4 (30%).

Unsurprisingly, owners of the Smart Fortwo were least likely to have sex in their car (1%), followed by those who potter about in a Honda Civic (3%).

Renault Clio fan Dave Sanders, 28, of Ely, Cambs, admitted getting randy with his lady in his motor, adding: "There's not much room in a Clio and the windows got steamed up, but it's cosy and fun."

JOURNOS HELD OVER PISS VID

A GROUP of six journalists in South Sudan have been detained over the circulation of footage that appears to show President Salva Kiir PISSING HIS PANTS at an official event.

The footage (below), from last month, shows a dark stain spreading down the 71-year-old leader's left leg as he stands for the national anthem at a road commissioning event.

The video did not air on TV, but circulated on social media – where it quickly went viral.

The reporters, who work with the state-run South Sudan Broadcasting Corporation, were arrested by agents from the National Security Service.

Kiir has been president since South Sudan gained its independence, when it broke away from Sudan in July 2011.

South Sudan has been embroiled in crisis since then.

Government officials have repeatedly denied rumours on social media that Kiir is unwell.

Boozy driver showed cop his backflip

A SUSPECTED drink driver was arrested after he performed a BACKFLIP as part of his field sobriety test. Tanner Watson, 27 (above), was pulled over in his truck for speeding in Cleveland, Ohio, and told to walk in a straight line by a police officer who had smelled booze on him. But he then did a standing backflip and landed on his feet. However, Watson's tumbling skills were not enough to distract the cop from the matter at hand, who insisted the driver still had to walk in a straight line. A video from the officer's bodycam then shows an agitated Watson arguing loudly with the cop about what a straight line is, ultimately leading the fed-up law enforcement official to put the driver in handcuffs. Watson was jailed on a charge of operating a vehicle while impaired and cited for speeding.

IT'S NATIONAL KISS A REDHEAD DAY, SO TIME FOR...

GINGER BARE!

GINGERS are in the news at the moment, what with Prince Harry and his whingeing book hitting all the headlines.

But not all redheads are belly-aching blabber-mouths who whine on about how tough life living in a palace is.

Here at Midweek Sport we LOVE redhead ladies, with their fiery tempers and musky minges.

So we are more than happy to celebrate Kiss a Redhead Day.

By ABBIE HAY

news@sundaysport.co.uk

Of course, we should warn you that just because it's Kiss a Redhead Day, you are not allowed to simply go up to any flame haired lady and stick your tongue down her throat.

That sort of thing invites prosecution for sexual assault.

Probably best to just enjoy these FIVE pages of lovely redheads... with their busters out!

'I Zoom in on my fella while he's on a video call!'

#MY SEX FANTASY

...WITH SHARON PINK, 36H, FROM NEWCASTLE

WHAT really turns me on is getting naughty while on a work Zoom call!

The first time I did it with my then boyfriend was during lockdown. He manages a team and working from home he had a daily meeting with colleagues online.

One morning, I snuck into his home office wearing sexy, lacy lingerie and unzipped his flies... his face said, 'No, we can't do this,' but his penis said, 'Yes please!'. His cock won, ha! And I knew we were going to enjoy ourselves.

So I proceeded to give him a blow job from under the desk. I teased and went slow, then sped things up, and repeated that... building up the pressure.

When he came I could tell it was an intense orgasm. He made a slight whimper, but I think he got away with it! Just!

Another time we got totally carried away and we actually fucked while he was on the call.

I did all the bouncing on his cock while he tried to stay as still as possible.

That time he let out quite a moan. Barbara in accounts asked if he was OK.

Robo-bouncer guards door at Vegas strip club

A LAS Vegas strip club has deployed a huge robotic BOUNCER to welcome tech leaders from across the world attending a conference.

Mech "The Bot" Johnson (above), who stands 15ft tall and weighs 8,800lbs, is working with Sapphire Las Vegas's security detail during the four-day Consumer Electronics Show.

The robot has been stationed outside the strip club's gates to keep those waiting in line entertained, as it's too big to fit through any door frames.

Party

The club said in a statement: "He will be protecting us all from the AI bots taking over the Las Vegas CES convention so that you may party worry-free all weekend long."

The Bot is a massive human-controlled, all-terrain robotic mech' suit flown in from Vancouver for CES, Sapphire Las Vegas added.

Mech suits are usually big four-legged armoured suits that have the power to lift heavy objects by augmenting the strength of the human stationed inside.

Pizza man held hostage over missing drink

A PIZZA delivery driver was held hostage for mistakenly not delivering a man his drink order.

Leo Lamont Toney, 42, ordered a pizza from his local restaurant, Primo's Pizza, and after the delivery man dropped off the grub, Toney came out of his home and asked where his soda was.

Authorities say Toney forced the victim back into his apartment and locked the door, trapping the delivery man inside.

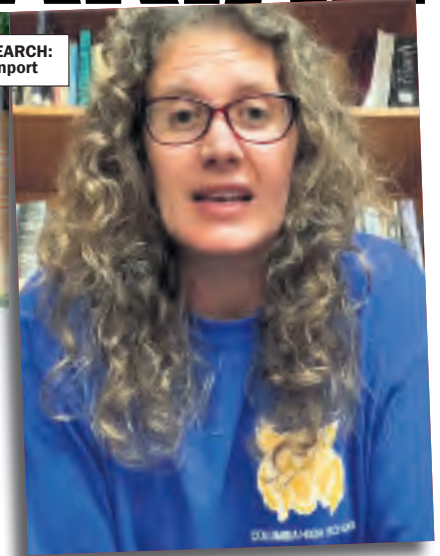

The delivery man said he forcefully pushed Toney away, fled, and immediately contacted the police department in Johnstown, Pennsylvania. Police said that Toney smelled of alcohol and had slurred speech.

He was booked and now faces charges for false imprisonment.

SCHOOL LIBRARIAN BONKED TEEN LAD

SPECIAL RESEARCH:
Kacey Davenport

Fancy a dip?

A SCHOOL librarian is facing a possible lengthy jail sentence after seducing one of the teenage pupils.

Kacey Davenport, 40, is understood to have been involved in a number of out-of-school sex acts with the lad.

Davenport, from Kill Devil Hills, North Carolina, has been charged with five counts, including sex acts with a student, indecent liberties with a minor, dissemination of material harmful to a minor, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The Columbia High School employee turned herself in at the Tyrrell County Sheriff's Office.

As well as having sex with the teen, she is also accused of sending nude images of herself to him.

Frank Mitchell, who is investigating the case, said the acts did not occur at Columbia High School but had played out over the course of several months during the last academic year.

The student, who is thought to have been the only victim, came forward and told the authorities about the illicit affair.

Davenport was put on administrative leave as soon as the report was received.

When she turned herself in at Tyrrell County Sheriff's office she was accompanied by her attorney and a bail bondsman.

There has not yet been any word on her job with Tyrrell County Schools.

She is understood to have posted bail.

When she joined the school she posted a video introducing herself to the students.

She said: "I can't wait to meet you and find out what your interests are."

"I am here to help you with your research needs, so come and see me."

On its website, Columbia High School identified Davenport as a "media coordinator".

RANDY JUDGE ASKED FOR SEX WITH LAG'S GIRL

FACING JAIL:
Thomas Carruth

By JOHN GRAY news@sundaysport.co.uk

A JUDGE has been arrested and is accused of asking for sex from a defendant's girlfriend in exchange for moving his criminal case along.

Thomas Carruth, 63, of Clarendon, Arkansas, was taken into custody in Little Rock and charged with nine counts, including fraud, bribery and obstruction of justice, punishable by decades in prison.

According to court documents, Carruth was an elected judge of the Monroe County district court when in April last year he allegedly sought sex from a woman as part of a quid-pro-quo arrangement to help expedite her boyfriend's trial date.

Carruth then allegedly lied to FBI agents when questioned about the incident.

He was charged by indictment with three counts of honest services wire fraud, three of using a facility in interstate commerce in furtherance of unlawful activity, bribery, false statements, and obstruction of justice, according to the Department of Justice.

If convicted, the ex-judge faces up to 20 years in prison.

The Arkansas Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission confirmed in a statement that Carruth's home was raided by the FBI in June and that he resigned from his part-time judicial position in August so he could run for another public office.

The commission said it is currently investigating two complaints related to the FBI probe that were brought against Carruth.

In an interview with KARK-TV a day after the raid on his home last summer, Carruth claimed that he was the victim of a blackmail attempt.

He said at the time that a woman "made a false accusation" against him, and that she would "do anything" to get her boyfriend out of jail.

Blackmail

According to the judge, he contacted the Arkansas State Police and the FBI to report the blackmail attempt.

"I've done everything I'm supposed to do," Carruth said. "When someone tried getting me to do something, I contacted authorities immediately."

The woman, referred to as Jane Doe in a complaint filed in the US District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas, claimed that Carruth had a meeting with her and offered to free her jailed boyfriend if she agreed to have sex with him, but she turned him down.

Doe filed a lawsuit in late August against Carruth, accusing him of defamation.

DEMI'S BONDAGE CRUCIFIX POSTER 'LIKELY TO OFFEND'

A POSTER promoting US singer Demi Lovato's new album in the UK was likely to cause serious offence for linking sexuality to the crucifix and crucifixion, the advertising regulator has ruled.

The poster (left), seen across London in August, featured an image of the album cover showing Lovato bound in a bondage-style outfit while lying on a large, cushioned crucifix.

The headline stated: "Demi Lovato" and "Holy Fvck" – the name of the album.

The poster attracted four complaints that it was likely to cause serious or widespread offence and was irresponsibly placed where kids could see it.

Defending the poster, Polydor Records said it did not believe the poster would cause serious or widespread offence.

The label told the Advertising Standards Authority it had checked it was acceptable to run at the proposed sites prior to release, and had been assured that it was.

Polydor said that the posters only appeared at six specific sites in London for a four-day period and were removed on August 23.

However, the ASA said that the poster was likely to cause serious offence to Christians.

£100k compo for refusing to take knee

A FORMER university footballer who accused the coach of leaving her on the bench when she refused to kneel during a pre-game social justice demo will get £100k as part of a lawsuit payout.

Kiersten Hening (above) will receive the dosh after agreeing to dismiss the lawsuit she filed in 2021 against Virginia Tech University head coach Charles Adair.

Hening claimed she was benched after Adair got frustrated by her political views, which differed from her teammates.

She refused to kneel during a demonstration in support of the Black Lives Matter movement in 2020.

In her lawsuit, she said that while she "supports social justice and believes that black lives matter" she "does not support BLM the organisation", citing its "tactics and core tenets of its mission statement, including defunding the police".

Adair berated her and benched her, and two games later, she quit the team, saying in the lawsuit that she was forced out because of her coach's "campaign of abuse and retaliation".

Fact me!

BABIES are born with no bacteria in their bodies.

Woman caught with 4ft snake at airport

AIRPORT bosses say a traveller tried to bring an "emotional support pet" boa constrictor SNAKE through security.

A spokesperson for the Transportation Security Administration said the incident took place at Tampa International Airport in Florida when a woman was found with the snake, named Bartholomew, in her carry-on bag.

The reptile was spotted when the bag went through an X-ray machine.

The TSA contacted the airline, which said she couldn't bring the 4ft-long snake aboard the aircraft.

The TSA said in an Instagram post: "There's a danger noodle in that bag... our officers at Tampa International Airport didn't find this hyssssssterical! Coiled up in a passenger's carry-on bag was a boa constrictor!"

"We really have no adder-ation for finding any pet going through an X-ray machine."

BATTLE OF THE BUM SEX BABES

RHOADES

By ABBIE HAY news@sundaysport.co.uk

THEY are both famous for taking yard after throbbing yard of hard cock up their puckered bums in close-up X-rated movies...

But Angela White and Lana Rhoades have VERY different opinions about the future of porn.

Aussie beauty Angela shot back after former industry star Lana called for adult films to be banned.

Lana, who began appearing in porn films from the age of 19, condemned the industry during an appearance on The Skinny Confidential podcast.

Attractive

She said at the time she 'wasn't mature enough to realise what actually went into it' and quickly realised that starring in adult films wasn't for her.

"Essentially you're having sex with people that you didn't choose to have sex with, that you might not find attractive."

"You might actually think that they're disgusting and you have to have sex with them because it's your job," she said.

"I don't think it's good for anyone. They should make it illegal," added Lana, who after leaving the industry founded a clothing and lingerie line.

Her comments form part of the ongoing back-and-forth over the industry, with some arguing porn is empowering to women, while others brand it as degrading.

But Angela insists that making porn can be feminist.

Claiming that women are paid more than men in the adult film industry, she added: "It's an industry where women can be empowered to create their own content, be creative with their sexuality and create a financial future for themselves."

BREAST FRIENDS:
Angela and Lana working together

"I can only speak from my own experiences, but for me, it's been very empowering."

Angela went on to address Lana's comments after the pair previously worked together.

She noted the importance of respecting how performers feel about their time in porn, but added: "Obviously I disagree with her statement that we should ban porn."

Photos

Angela's career began after she sent photos to adult entertainment company The Score Group when she turned 18.

She went on to create her own company, AGW Entertainment, which allows her to 'control every detail'.

"I am a feminist, so what I create is feminist, and I produce ethical porn, which is when everything is consensual," Angela added.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Bexie,

I'm having an affair with our babysitter and my thick wife doesn't suspect a thing.

I'm 27, the missus is 29 and the babysitter is 19, with pert tits and a tight pussy.

She's quite experienced for a teen and I have been shagging her for six months. She lets me do anything I want with her, which is more than the ball and chain does.

The wife believes everything I tell her – that's how I can enjoy my cake and eat it!

We go out twice a week and while she's getting ready me and the babysitter have a quickie.

We make love all over the house, even in our bed while the wife is relaxing in the bath.

Do you think she knows and is just turning a blind eye?

BG, Kidderminster

Bexie says...

YOU'RE playing with fire my friend. Be warned!

Dear Bexie,

I'm a barmaid and I love sex. I'm 21 with long, dark hair and most blokes can't take their eyes off my 34Ds.

I am used to being chatted up but had never taken it any further until one of the regulars offered me £20 to suck his cock.

I needed the money, so I gave him a blowjob on my way home. I must have impressed him, as over the next few weeks several of his mates paid me to give them a gobble.

I was happy with the extra money and was delighted when the landlord offered me £500 to be shagged by him and a couple of customers.

On the night of the gang-bang the landlord led me to the pool table and soon I was being banged by three blokes.

But they told everybody in town and now I can't go anywhere without being called a slag.

What should I do?

LG, Leeds

Bexie says...

MOVE to a new area and find another job.

Girlfriend's filthy pal has made me her sex slave

Dear Bexie,

My bird's mate is a right dirty cow and she has wanted to shag me for ages.

I managed to resist her advances until just a couple of weeks ago.

My girlfriend was away at a conference for the weekend and her mate came round to my flat clutching a couple of bottles of wine and a pizza.

She said she was just checking up on me to make sure I wasn't seeing any other women behind my bird's back!

We soon polished off the wine and we were both a bit tipsy and I could see what was coming next.

She stood up and stripped off to her black G-string before getting out my throbbing cock and sucking me off until I spunked on her face.

She then pleased herself with a wine bottle until I was rock-hard again. I led her to my bedroom and gave her a good shagging.

But when I woke up the next day, I felt horribly guilty.

I told her that we couldn't have sex again, but she said she would tell my girlfriend if I didn't carry on seeing her.

She explained that she didn't like my girlfriend anyway and if their friendship ended she wouldn't be that bothered.

So I now have to bang her twice a week.

The last time we did it she tied me up and spanked me with a cane.

I'm virtually her sex slave now. What do you think I should do?

JD, Essex

Bexie says...

TELL your girlfriend the truth and beg for forgiveness.

I'm worn out playing kinky sex games he sees on TV

Dear Bexie,

MY boyfriend is wearing me down with his constant – and bizarre – sexual requests.

We've been going out together for two years and recently set up home in a roomy two-bed flat.

The problem is that what he watches on the telly he tends to put into practice in real life.

Take this for example. There was this game show which you got the chance to open a box containing details of a super prize.

We watched it together and I must admit I quite enjoyed it.

He's a bit of a pub quiz fan and when it finished he got me to ask him a few questions – as a test.

Hammering

Amazingly, he got them all right and demanded his big prize.

I was just going along with the fun, wondering what the punchline would be, when he pulled me into the bedroom, which I didn't resist.

He quickly stripped me and the next thing I knew, I was naked on the bed and he was standing above me demanding: "Open the box!"

I soon realised what he meant as he parted my legs and entered me.

Then he spent the next half-an-hour hammering into me from all angles.

I must have orgasmed five or more times and was covered in his man muck.

We had a really great session, but the next programme he took a fancy to watching on the telly was a play about two lesbians.

As soon as it finished he started on to me, asking if I could please find another woman to make love to – so he could watch!

I was a bit shocked and told him so and although he apologised and calmed me down, it didn't end there.

He found a satellite station showing old Benny Hill re-runs and watched three or four of them, back to back.

So he asked me to dress up as a nurse and run around the house chasing him.

This was great fun and we ended up having a frenzied f**k for about an hour.

Then he started on at me again about lesbo sex.

I'm trying to put him off the idea but I am also quite worried about what he'll come up with next if I don't agree to bringing another girl back to the house for some adult fun.

How can I stop him wanting to recreate everything he sees on the telly?

MH, Lancs

Bexie says...

TAKE the remote control off him.

Dear Bexie,

I MOVED to a new town last month and made friends with a guy in the local pub.

He's in his early 50s and works abroad a lot and he confided in me that he worries his wife shags around when he's away.

So he employed me as a part-time gardener while he was next away on a trip, asking me to keep an eye on her.

When I got there for my first day I wasn't expecting his wife to be so fit.

She's in her early forties and it wasn't long before she was whispering in my ear that she wanted a f**k.

She told me she'd always wanted a toyboy – I'm 23 – and was soon sucking my throbbing cock.

After swallowing my mess, she revealed her 34D tits and firm arse.

I gave her a good licking out before I bent her over the sofa, taking her doggy-style until she had a screaming orgasm.

I've shagged her several times since, but she now wants to leave her husband, who's due back in a couple of weeks, and move in with me!

What should I do?

TV, Coventry

Bexie says...

STAY calm. She will probably change her mind when her husband returns.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

email: agony@sundaysport.co.uk

Mail: Agony, Sunday Sport, 860 Chester Road, Stretford, Manchester M32 0QJ

Dear Bexie,

I AM a 24-year-old geezer and have only had sex with three women.

I am currently single. This is my fault as I really want to hook up with birds, but I am too scared as I have a bendy penis!

The last time I pulled a nice blonde bird and got her back to my place, it all went badly wrong.

Everything was going great to begin with as I stripped her off and sucked her big nipples before switching down below to give her fanny a good licking.

She was gagging for it, but as soon as I pulled out my bent cock she had a laughing fit and told me there was no way she was taking that inside her.

Now I worry that all women will take one look at it and tell me to f**k off. What should I do?

PK, Sussex

Bexie says...

I THINK you've nothing to worry about. Just get out there and get pulling!

KINKY Carol Wayne loves sex and doesn't care if it's with boys...or girls!
 She proudly confessed: "I'm a total nympho!"
 The beauty, from the Czech Republic, also admitted to enjoying HUNDREDS of one-night stands.
 Carol, a bra-bustin' 34F, said: "I have a very high sex drive and crave it almost constantly - day and night."
 "It doesn't even need to be a fella - I enjoy sex with girls, too."
 "In fact, sometimes it can feel even better! I really like the taste of minge."

HOKSH

SEXY Pamela Hoksh likes dressing up in the bedroom but reckons the best thing to wear for sex is...nothing at all! The 34C blonde beauty from Blackburn, Lancs, said: "I've got all the kinky outfits. "But the thing that REALLY seems to get a fella's motor running is coming out of the bathroom, straight after a shower and stark naked. "It's even better if I've just shaved my pussy. That makes it really sensitive and when he goes down on me... wow!"

32HH, from Cardiff

SEXY Sarah Randall LOVES having big boobs!

She explained: "Yes, they can get in the way a bit when you're running for a bus. But going into a bar with a tight top and every man turning to look at you, open-mouthed? "That's priceless."

VIKKI THOMAS

SHOP worker Malcolm Hutchinson only has eyes for glamour legend Vikki Thomas and wrote in asking for a sexy snap.

Malcolm, 53, from Derby, says he fancies the pants off the Weston-super-Mare hottie and ogles her 36DD boobs any time he can.

He said: "Please can I have a photo of Vikki printed in the Sport please? My pics I saved of her are getting a bit tatty now and I want a new photo of her teets."

"Work can be a pain but knowing I've got tons of photos of Vikki at home gets me through the day."

KRISTIA GABRIEL

IT technician Steven Goodwin much prefers blondes over brunettes and gorgeous Kristia is his number one choice.

The 37-year-old computer whizz kid, from Northampton, begged for a topless snap of Aussie Kristia, now living in Brighton.

He said: "My fave is Kristia slowly dropping her least bit of clothing."

"Seeing those 34C boobs bared really is a great sight."

ADELE STEPHENS

RETIRED Glenn Hardacre says he hasn't had sex for years – but stunning Adele Stephens never fails to cause a stir in his pants.

Glenn, 72, from Leeds, reckons Adele, from Wakefield, West Yorks, is the perfect woman and he can't stop ogling her 36D boobs.

He said: "I've been retired ten years now, that's when I started reading the Sport.

"And I tell you what, they are the best ten years I've had!

"There's tons of fitties in the Sport but Adele is my favourite. She always gets me going, even when I didn't think I had anything left in me!"

SPORT STARTS HERE WITH RACING

Base Note ready to call the tune

BASE NOTE must have every chance of defying top weight in the Huge Daily Boosts Only At BetUK Handicap at Lingfield.

Trained by Simon and Ed Crisford, who are enjoying such a fruitful spell at present, Base Note is dropping in class.

He was last seen just being touched off by Milton Harris' smart dual-purpose horse Scriptwriter at Wolver in a competitive class two event.

A beaten favourite that night, there was certainly no disgrace in defeat, given Scriptwriter's last run on the Flat had been in the Ballysax Stakes for Aidan O'Brien.

Creditable

Prior to the Wolverhampton race, which ended up as a bit of a blanket finish, in which the reopposing Protected Guest was just behind, Base Note had won at over the same course and distance in style.

Given he was running off a 6lb higher mark, not taking into account Harry Burns' 3lb claim, who rides him again, it was a very creditable run. The extra 11lb he has to carry down in grade should not make much difference.

The Charlie Hills-trained Rabaah catches the eye in the BetUK's Acca Club £5 Free Bet

By MIKE FRANCIS

Novice Stakes. He has not been sighted since running well in what turned out to be a hotly contested Leicester maiden at the end of May.

Rabaah has been off the track since then, but these days trainers are well versed at having horses fit to go off the back of such long absences.

The winner at Leicester, Brian Meehan's Show Respect, was subsequently second in the July Stakes and is now rated 105 while the runner up, Catch The Paddy, won his next two and ended his season in the Gimcrack - even the seventh has won since.

That was clearly a good race, Rabaah shaped with great promise in third and he can win on his return to action.

Jamie Osborne is well on the way to bettering last season's total of winners already which will be a relief for him.

He has openly admitted that 2022 was a disappointment, but with five on the board for 2023 before racing on Tuesday, he should have no trouble surpassing last year's tally of 16.

Free Solo has already notched once since the turn of the year and was narrowly beaten on Saturday. Clearly in good heart, he should go well again in the Spreadex Sports Best Premier League Odds Handicap.

It has not taken long for some of the bigger yards to wake up to the potential of the new rising star in the weighing room, Billy Loughnane.

The 16-year-old has started his career as if he is going to be a top jockey of the future and his current 7lb claim will not be lasting long.

Son of trainer Mark Loughnane, his dad has provided him with the majority of his winners to date but he is already working up an extensive contacts book.

Alan King has booked him for Fast Forward in the Dave O'Neill Ballot Champion Race Handicap at Kempton and the youngster will be keen to make an impact for such an established trainer.

Advantage

Fast Forward did not seemingly take to hurdling in two outings in the summer and was well beaten on his return to the Flat in August. King will have freshened him up since then, though, and he can take advantage of a low mark.

Stuart Williams' Arbaawi was value for more than the winning margin of a head last time out and can go in again in the bet@racingtv.com Handicap.

Well backed, he took advantage of an opening handicap mark of just 59 at Southwell and has been raised 5lb but as he was slowly away, he was never on an even keel.

ALL THE FACTS AND FIGURES ON A GREAT CAREER

Bale was a force at home and away

WELSH WIZARD SCORED GOALS ALL OVER THE FOOTBALL WORLD

REAL DEAL: Bale won five Champions League crowns with Madrid

GARETH Bale has announced his retirement after an illustrious career with Wales and clubs including Tottenham and Real Madrid.

Here, Midweek Sport looks at his career goalscoring record.

IN ENGLAND
APPEARANCES: 282
GOALS: 77

Beginning his career as a youngster on the south coast with Southampton in the Championship, Bale earned a move to Premier League side Tottenham in 2007 and established himself as a world-class talent.

He scored five goals in 45 Saints appearances despite operating primarily as a left-back, the position in which he also began his Spurs career before moving forward to the wing and eventually into the forward line.

After nothing only six goals in his first three seasons in north London, he hit double figures in the next two and then 26 – including 21 in the Premier

By JOHN ANTHONY

League – in a career-best 2012-13 campaign before leaving for Real Madrid with a record of 56 goals in 203 games for Tottenham.

He returned to Spurs on loan for the majority of the 2020-21 season, producing spells of his old form as he scored 11 league goals and 16 in 34 games in all competitions.

REAL MADRID
APPEARANCES: 258
GOALS: 106

Firmly established as an elite attacking talent by the time of his move to Spain, Bale hit double figures in La Liga in four of his first five seasons before falling out of favour.

He scored 22 for Real in 2013-14 – including six in the Champions League, his best ever return in Europe – while his 19 club goals in 2015-16 all came in the league.

His 21 in all competitions in 2017-18 represents the last time he passed 20 goals in a season, with just 11 league goals for Real after that point though he did reach 14 in all competitions in 2018-19, including a Club World Cup hat-trick against Kashima Antlers.

FRESH FACED: Bale in 2007

His 106 goals for the club featured three in Champions League finals, including a memorable brace against Liverpool in 2018.

LOS ANGELES FC
GOALS: 3

Bale's club swansong in Major League Soccer was short-lived and featured only two starts but proved a win-win for him and his club, helping him stay in condition for Wales' November World Cup campaign, while he played a key role in LAFC's Major League Soccer Cup win.

His third and final goal for the club came deep into stoppage time at the end of the final against the Philadelphia Union, levelling the tie at 3-3 and allowing his 10-man side to win on penalties and lift the trophy.

That was to be his final club goal of his illustrious career.

WALES
APPEARANCES: 111
GOALS: 41

Bale was his country's captain, talisman and record goalscorer, passing Ian Rush's previous Wales record of 28 with a hat-trick against China in March 2018.

He made his debut aged 16 in 2006 and was their youngest ever player at the time, a record since broken by Harry Wilson, going on to win a national record 111 caps.

His first goal came against Slovakia as a 17-year-old and he scored prolifically in qualifying campaigns for successive major tournaments, most notably during Euro 2016 where he got seven in the preliminary campaign and three more at the finals – Wales' first major tournament since 1958.

A hat-trick against Belarus and play-off goals against Austria and Ukraine were instrumental in ending Wales' 64-year wait for a World Cup appearance, and he then scored their only goal in Qatar.

JONES DIGS IN FOR A BATTLE

NATHAN Jones fears continued criticism from Southampton fans could hamper the club's Premier League survival scrap.

Southampton supporters turned on the Welshman in their side's FA Cup away fixture at Crystal Palace on Saturday by chanting: "Nathan Jones, your football is shit!"

Saints fought back from a goal down to book their place in the fourth round, earning Jones his second win as manager since joining from Sky Bet Championship Luton in November.

By WES DERBY

But Jones has lost his three Premier League matches in charge and Saints are rooted to the foot of the table following six straight defeats.

Asked if the fans' negative outlook might undermine his tenure, Jones replied: "It could if it continues but I understand fans pay their money."

"I came in on the back foot, in terms of where I came from but it is up to me to change perceptions and it is up to me to change results. If I don't do that I expect to be treated in a certain way."

"I actually prefer they take it out on me than the team, but we want to give them performances where they actually see progression and a group of players that want to work hard and a structure that they can get behind."

"Managers get paid to handle pressure, to handle frustrations and to come through times like this." Speaking ahead of Southampton's Carabao Cup quarter-final against Manchester City on Wednesday, Jones also insisted he has no plans to change his side's approach despite feeling the wrath of the supporters.

He continued: "Our style will not be an issue when we win games. We are not a long-ball team, as has been said. It is a myth."

"If you look back at my career, I have been an advocate of the diamond – which is front-footed and possession-based. I did that at Luton with one of the lowest budgets in the Championship and it was a side that was in the top six."

Strugglers

"We can talk all we want about style, but every time someone plays a ball that goes vertical that doesn't mean we have become a long-ball team."

"Once we start getting results, no part of that will be an issue. At the minute people perceive that is how we want to play, but it is not." Saints host Pep Guardiola's side at St Mary's Stadium before they travel to fellow league strugglers' Everton in a pivotal match on Saturday.

Croatia international Mislav Orsic could be handed his debut in either of the two fixtures following his move from Dinamo Zagreb.

But Jones warned: "He hasn't played much football since he scored the winner in the World Cup play-off."

"We are going to assess him because we don't want to push him early, something happens, he breaks down, and we lose him. That would be crazy so we will take it day-by-day."

WAGNER WANTS NORWICH UNITED

By ANDY MILLOM

NEW Norwich head coach David Wagner feels it will take everyone from the kitchen to the boardroom to pull together if the club are to achieve a return to the Premier League this season.

Former Huddersfield boss Wagner has signed a 12-month rolling contract at Carrow Road.

The German was in the dugout for Sunday's FA Cup third-round home defeat by Blackburn and will now turn attention to kickstarting a faltering Championship campaign at Preston, with the Canaries 11th in the table but only three points from the play-off spots.

Smith – who took over in November 2021 following the departure of Daniel Farke, but could not keep Norwich in the top flight – was sacked on December 27 after a run of just three wins from 13 league games.

Despite having taken Norwich towards the top of the Championship earlier in the campaign, the former Villa boss had struggled to win over the City supporters. The atmosphere at Carrow Road became toxic during the closing weeks of Smith's tenure.

Wagner, 51, received a warm welcome from the home crowd and feels togetherness is needed at the club.

"Even if you won promotion once, or some of the players twice, it doesn't guarantee you that you automatically win promotion again," said Wagner, who guided Huddersfield to the Premier League in 2017 and kept them in the top flight the following season.

"We will fight tirelessly to get this. We know we have a lot of work to do."

"But we will do everything to make it happen this season, and then we can speak about how you stay up in the Premier League."

Wagner added: "Will it (promotion) happen? I don't know, but do we have chance? 100 per cent we have a chance and it's up to us."

"Every individual every person in the football club, not only the players – everybody (from the) canteen and kitman."

"They will have all to dig into it, our supporters (also). Yesterday (against Blackburn) was great for the first time when we were together."

"We all together have to believe in this chance and have to try to do everything to make this happen."

"Easy? No. Possible? Yes – and this is how we take it forward."

CHALLENGE: Wagner

CASH CALL: Rodgers

I'm a footy boss... not a magician!

BRENDAN Rodgers insists he is not a "magician" as he battles to keep Leicester challenging for silverware.

He is hopeful of new recruits this month after Wout Faes was the only outfield signing last year – coming after the £70million departure of Wesley Fofana to Chelsea.

Newcastle's Saudi-led takeover in 2021 changed the dynamic in the Premier League and Rodgers feels the new money in the top flight has made it harder for teams like Leicester.

"I think I'm a decent coach, but I'm not a magician," said the Foxes boss.

"If you look at our net spend since I've been here, it's about £10million, in the three-and-half years I've been here.

"Compare that to our competitors, like Aston Villa, West Ham, Newcastle. It's over £250million. It's a big difference.

"If you look at Newcastle's net spend in the last year, along with the fantastic coaching of Eddie (Howe) and his staff plus the infrastructure from where they were to where they are now, they're looking to build and create something.

"They'll do it wisely and sensibly, but they have the resources to do that. So that's the modern game and there's no doubt they join that bracket.

"Look at some of the other teams – Aston Villa's net spend over the last few years, West Ham too. It's becoming a real challenge."

Leicester's shock Premier League win in 2016 is arguably the biggest upset in English football history and Rodgers wants fans to believe trophies are possible, despite the difficulties.

He said: "You have to look at the reality of it. It's so important for every club that supporters can dream, but there is a reality to it and a reason why the trophies have been won in the main by the biggest clubs with the biggest resources, that's natural.

"It does not stop us trying any harder or working any harder and we've proven in the two games at Wembley (FA Cup and Community Shield) we can take a trophy home.

"That will never cease while I'm here because that's what we want to do and I know the players are very keen to do it as well."

Arteta backs Eddie to fill Jesus's boots as Arsenal hunt surprise title success

MIKEL Arteta believes Eddie Nketiah is seizing his moment, having hit a brace in Arsenal's FA Cup third-round win at Oxford.

By PAUL THOMAS

The 23-year-old has now scored five goals in as many games as he continues to deputise for Gabriel Jesus after the Brazil forward suffered a knee injury at the World Cup.

Nketiah struck twice in the 3-0 victory at the Kassam Stadium, two smart finishes adding the gloss to a difficult game following Mohamed Elneny's headed opener.

Having started the season on the bench, Nketiah is now Arsenal's joint-leading goalscorer alongside the more regular first-team starters Martin Odegaard, Bukayo Saka and Gabriel Martinelli.

"Obviously, he's been waiting for this moment," Arteta said of Nketiah following the victory.

"He's been patient when he needed to be but as well he's been with the right mindset and preparing himself for this moment.

"That's why I think he looks ready and why he's performing the way he is. He showed great composure.

"He's a great finisher, the timing of his runs and the decision-making in waiting until the last moment when the keeper was committed shows his quality.

"His understanding, his work-rate, I think he's getting better and better."

With Jesus out, Nketiah is now the only recognised striker in Arteta's ranks and the Arsenal boss is hoping for some back-up to arrive in the January window as his side aim to build on their five-point lead at the top of the Premier League.

"The problem is that we have only one striker and to cope for many months until Gabby is back is not easy," he added.

"But we have to get the most out of the players that we have at the moment. If we can have some reinforcements, great."

A win at third-tier Oxford means Arsenal will now travel to face Manchester City in round four, with Pep Guardiola's side also sitting second in the table ready to pounce on any mistakes.

Control

"It's always tough to win these matches," added Arteta.

"They matched up, it was a physical game in many moments but we stood by that. They are a direct team and we had to control certain things better.

"We changed things in the second half and got more control of the game and found the openings to win."

Arteta also allayed fears of an injury to Saka ahead of Sunday's north London derby away to Tottenham, confirming the England forward is "fine" despite limping off in the second half.

Across north London, France goalkeeper and 2018 World Cup winner Hugo Lloris has retired from international football at 36.

The Tottenham captain has been capped a record 145 times for the French men's side, 121 of them as skipper.

The French Football Federation confirmed the news on Monday evening, listing some of his achievements on Twitter and adding: "A Legend. Bravo and THANK YOU for everything Hugo."

It expanded in a statement on its website: "After more than 14 years spent in the jersey of the French team, Hugo Lloris has chosen to put an end to his international career."

Lloris made his international debut aged 21 in a 2008 friendly against Uruguay and was part of France's World Cup-winning side.

He played in four World Cups – a joint record for France – in 2010, 2014, the triumphant 2018 campaign and most recently in 2022, when his side lost 4-2 to Argentina on penalties in last month's final.

It was in Qatar that he passed Lilian Thuram for France's most caps and he also holds the record for the most World Cup matches, with 20 played for his national side.

France manager Didier Deschamps said: "Hugo has decided to retire while he is still at the top of his game. He shared his thoughts and decision with me a few days ago.

"I must, we must, respect it even if he still had his place in our team, as he demonstrated during the last World Cup, in Doha.

"A very great servant of the French team bows out and I want to salute his exceptional career.

"Beyond all the records that his talent and professionalism have allowed him to break, beyond the essential role he played in our greatest conquests, the 2018 World Cup, the 2021 Nations League, in our most beautiful journeys, the final of Euro 2016 and that of the 2022 World Cup.

"Hugo is a remarkable person on a human level. He was captain when I became coach in 2012, I kept the armband for him and I never had to regret it, quite the contrary.

"Hugo has a very high idea of the French team, he has always been oriented towards the collective, he has always put it forward, sometimes even to his detriment.

"It was a pleasure and an honour for me to be his trainer. I wish all coaches to have players like him to manage.

"Hugo has all my respect and gratitude. I wish him to be happy. A big thank you Hugo for having represented your country so well."

Chelsea boss NOT in danger despite shocking run of form

By JOHN ANTHONY

The CHELSEA board is NOT considering sacking Graham Potter as manager despite the club's terrible form and fury from the stands.

There was vocal disapproval from visiting supporters as the Blues were easily brushed aside by Manchester City in the FA Cup.

That was the sixth defeat in nine games, with the Blues now out of both cup competitions and trailing by 10 points in the race to qualify for the Champions League.

Co-owner Todd Boehly has stepped down from his role as interim sporting director to be replaced by director of global talent Paul Winstanley and technical director Christopher Vivell. Chelsea have won just once in their last seven domestic fixtures, with fans singing the name of former head coach Thomas Tuchel during the defeat to City.

But there are no plans to sack Potter and seek a third manager of the season, with the board believing that nothing has changed and that he remains the right man to get the best out of the club's huge summer transfer outlay.

Boehly, who led the £250million spending spree alongside Tuchel, will now hand over to Winstanley, who joined from Potter's former club Brighton in November, and Vivell, who arrived from RB Leipzig's in December.

Chelsea's difficult season has seen their squad decimated by injuries, with 10 first-team players unavailable for Sunday's game against City.
